Question 1: The cost for the labor in this case I'm talking about the sheet that need to be installed, the price is going to be per sheet purchased. If I use less, let's say that it is a small window for example, and I don't use it all, still paying for the complete sheet?

Answer 1: Yes, plywood will be reimburse at cost for the entire sheet of plywood, even if the entire sheet was not used for the job.
